Innate category: Recluse.

These people are individualists. They are quite similar to the 1st category and they usually don't bring any benefits to their country and motherland if there is no rules and laws that can make them to do it. Unlike the 1st category, these people are not so open-minded and don't have the endurance or strong life position and image. They try to find benefits in everything they can see around.

Some of them try to find weaknesses in law in order to become more rich. Some of them can create a chaos if they need it or even set up some people against others. They don't respect the borders of the countries and they are not involved in culture and national traditions much. They don't care about national flags. That is why they usually don't have a permanent place of residence during their life. They prefer to move away from society, but they can come back to society again, when they see clear benefits for themselves.

They are not against the fame, but only if it will bring them a lot of money. These people don't understand when others are standing in lines for products or services. Sometimes, they don't see a problem with bribes if the law in their country doesn't work correctly. Their hobbies are quite similar to Category 1, because they like private yachts and planes.

But they are very secretive people. Recluse can feel the upcoming negative changes inside the country, and if the news are really bad, they will pack their bags and move to another place. They don't like to talk much about politics, because such theme doesn't touch their emotions and they don't respect disabled, old, sick or poor people. They respect only wealthy people.
